2025/2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
Together We Bring Hope
...and Hope does not disappoint

GOAL $155,000 PLEDGES $73,752

Please place your CMA envelope in the donation slot in Church or bring to the Parish Office and we will send it in for you. Please make checks out to "Catholic Ministries Appeal".

You can also make your gift online at www.dor.org/cma
(St. Rita Parish number is 327).

We are at 48% of our goal from 149 households.*

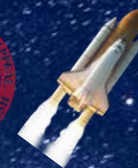

Thank you for your generosity and prayers for the success of our CMA!

UPDATED AS OF 10/28/24

From the Desk of Father Tim*...

Keep The CMA Momentum Going

Just as a NASA rocket fires its engines and begins to slowly rise until it gains speed and powers onto its designed path, this year's CMA took a moment to get off the ground, but is now rocketing along its path!

As I write this (10/28), we have fulfilled 48% of our parish responsibility. 149 households, or 35% of last year's households, have participated, with an average gift of $498.

Every year, a number of faithful participants in the CMA can no longer take part. Even though we have a good number of new households participating, the total households who participate decreases. Let's change that trend this year!

Last year we had 438 households participate. Let's aim to increase our participation by a modest 5%, up to 460 households!

Here is a small incentive:

Until December 14th, for every new household (a household who participates this year but has not participated in the last two years) I will personally give an additional $5. For every household above and beyond last year's total of 438, I will add another $5 to my CMA gift.

If you are new to the CMA this year, your gift will result in an added $5 or $10 given to the CMA!

Together, we can not only meet our responsibility, but we more fully show our belief in the great work of the ministers of our diocese!

Thank you very much for your financial and prayerful support of this year's CMA!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed "The Souls of the Just are in the Hand of God"

This Sunday is a rare opportunity to celebrate All Souls Day on a Sunday. Normally this would be the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time but because All Souls Day falls on a Sunday, we use these readings in our celebration. Our readings for this commemoration give us consolation for our beloved dead and hope of their resurrection and eternal life.

In our first reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

(Solomon 3:1-9), we hear the firm belief in the afterlife and that the just will rest with our God for eternity. "They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead ... but they are in peace." Whatever suffering they had in this life was seen as a testing and purification by God so that they would be found worthy. "... Because God tried them and found them worthy of himself."

In our Epistle reading (Romans 6:3-9), St. Paul teaches us the importance of Baptism. Paul emphasizes that Baptism is a real and not merely symbolic participation in the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. Paul writes, "If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him." This is not a symbolic resurrection, but a real resurrection to a real eternal life with Christ in paradise, heaven. We are called to believe this reality and put it into practice in our daily lives.

In our Gospel reading (John 6:37-40), we hear an excerpt from Jesus' "Bread of Life Discourse" which happens immediately after He fed the five thousand with only five fish and two loaves of bread. This passage offers comfort and consolation that both we and our loved ones are the personal concern of Jesus. "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me..."

Today's celebration is not a feast day or a solemnity but always follows the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1, which is usually a Holy Day of Obligation. All Souls' Day is a solemn observance in the Catholic tradition to pray for the souls of the departed, particularly those in purgatory, who are believed to be in the process of purification before entering heaven. It is a day of remembrance and hope, reflecting on the unity of the Church, both on earth and in heaven, offering prayers and sacrifices to assist the souls of the deceased in their journey towards God's presence, and the promise of resurrection and eternal life with our God.

St. Rita
Trivia

The first baby to be baptized at St. Rita Church was on September 3, 1950.

Do you know the name of that baby?

Hint: It was a boy.

Over the Jubilee Year, we will explore the themes of Hope, Pilgrimage, and Jubilee, always ending with a question for you to consider over the week.

When Jesus says that everything the Father gives Him will come to Him, He means us. But we must make the pilgrimage to a life in Jesus. This faith journey takes our entire lives (sometimes more than our life here on earth) and is the model for all other pilgrimages.

Pondering Point

Looking back at your life, when can you see your path journeying to Jesus?
How do you feel your pilgrimage to Jesus could be strengthened?

Black Catholic History Month: Celebrating a Rich Heritage

November is Black Catholic History Month, a time to honor the deep and enduring contributions of Black Catholics to the Church's history, spirituality, and future. The roots of Black Catholicism trace back to early Christianity in North Africa, home to great saints like Augustine of Hippo, whose birthday is November 13.

These historical foundations continued in the Americas, where Black Catholic communities flourished in places like New Orleans and St. Augustine, Florida.

A central focus of this month is the "Saintly Six," six Black Catholic men and women on the path to sainthood: Venerable Pierre Toussaint, Servant of God Mother Mary Lange, Servant of God Julia Greeley, Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman, Venerable Augustus Tolton, and Venerable Henriette Delille. These trailblazers reflect lives of deep faith and service.

November also marks the feast of Saint Martin de Porres on November 3, the first Black saint in the Western Hemisphere. His legacy, along with those of ancient and contemporary Black Catholic leaders, continues to inspire.

This month invites us to reflect, celebrate, and learn.

Plan on joining us on Thursday, November 13th, at 7pm as we pray the Black Catholic Rosary as a way to honor the rich diversity of the Catholic Church.

Catholic Social Teaching

Forty years after Pope Leo XIII's encyclical Rerum Novarum, there was a new crisis in the world - the Great Depression. At this time, in 1931, Pope Pius XI followed up with his own encyclical, Quadragesimo Anno, which translates roughly and simply as "forty years later". Pius directly references the work of his predecessor and praised the work he had done.

Pope Pius writes that the purpose of society is to make people better, that one of the chief responsibilities of society is to assure that its people have what they need to become better, more virtuous, and more the people God created them to be. The primary way this happens is that the goods of the earth are shared through commerce and labor, where the benefits of the labor are shared appropriately with all those involved, employee and employer. It is with the earning of wages, enough to supply the needs of the family and also enough for some measure of comfort, that a person is better able to strive for greater virtue. Labor, however, is not the only means by which the needs and comfort of people are achieved. When work is scarce or a person is unable to work, it is society's responsibility to provide for their needs.

It is in a good and concerned relationship between labor and employers that society can flourish and achieve the common good of all people.

Pius introduces and clarifies a number of terms, such as subsidiarity, the common good, and social justice. I'll write about these starting next week.

Peace,
Fr. Tim
